

Re: Fwd: Re: Smelter Slag & Residues
D Nelson to: Linda Jacobson

01/13/2010 11:58 AM History: This message has been replied to.

Thank-you. I will call later in the day.

Jacobson.Linda@epamail.epa.gov wrote:

> Yes, I misunderstood from your email exchange with Scott Brown that you > were interested in a national data base maintained by EPA regarding slag > piles. I do not have knowledge of that. I do have information on the > slag pile at the Asarco smelter which I would be happy to share with you > if you would like to give me a call later today or specify in your email > exactly what you are seeking. Thanks.

>
> Linda Jacobson
> RCRA Enforcement
> US EPA Region 8
> (303) 312-6503

>
>
>
> From: D Nelson <debn@telus.net>
>
> To: Linda Jacobson/R8/USEPA/US@EPA
>
> Date: 01/13/2010 11:43 AM
>
> Subject: Re: Fwd: Re: Smelter Slag & Residues

>
>
>
> Hello Linda,
> Thank-you for the information. Can you please provide your contact > information? I am providing a sample of Carol Russell's signature below > as your previous response indicated you did not know what I was asking > for. I am interested in your phone number, title and branch of the > organization. I need to keep a record of all contacts from the study.

>

> Sample:

>
> Carol Russell
> EPA Mining Team
> 999 18th Street ste. 300
> Denver, CO 80202-2466
> 303.312.6310
> fax 303.312.6897
> russell.carol@epa.gov

>
> Also, my original email to Scott Brown and yourself (below) reads "do > you know who I would contact to obtain information about the slag > generated by the smelter? I am interested in the volume and assay." In > his response (below) Scott Brown confirmed you are the contact for the > East Helena slag pile.. Therefore, I am still interested in the volume > and assay for the pile. Can you please provide this information or the > contact information for someone else who may be able to assist me?

> Thank-you.
>
> Sincerely,
> Debbie Nelson
> (206) 497-6496
>
>
>
>
>
>
> Jacobson.Linda@epamail.epa.gov wrote:
>
>> I'm not sure what you're asking. Ms. Russell may be reached at (303)
>> 312-6310. Mr. Hoffman may be reached at (703) 308-8413.
>>
>>
>>
>>
>>
>>
>
>
>> From: Deb Nelson <djnc@telus.net>
>>
>
>
>
>> To: Linda Jacobson/R8/USEPA/US@EPA
>>
>
>
>
>> Date: 01/11/2010 09:53 AM
>>
>
>
>
>> Subject: Re: Re: Fwd: Re: Smelter Slag & Residues
>>
>
>
>
>>
>>
>>
>> Hello,
>>
>>
>> Can you please provide the contact information that would be contained >> in a signature? Thank-you.
>>
>>
>>

>>
>>
>> D. Nelson
>>
>>
>> (250) 818-3973
>>
>>
>>
>>
>> On Jan 11, 2010, Jacobson.Linda@epamail.epa.gov wrote:
>> I am not familiar with the data base. I think you've been referred >> to >> Steve Hoffman with EPA's headquarters and also copied Carol
>>
> Russell.
>
>>
>> From: Deb Nelson <djnc@telus.net>
>>
>> To: Linda Jacobson/R8/USEPA/US@EPA
>>
>> Date: 01/07/2010 01:38 PM
>>
>> Subject: Fwd: Re: Smelter Slag & Residues
>>
>>
>>
>>
>>
>> Hello,
>>
>>
>> Please see the emails below. Mr. Brown suggested you may be aware
>>
> of
>
>> the >> status of the nationwide EPA site by site slag volumes inventory.
>>
> I
>
>> would be very grateful for your help in identifying these sites.
>>
>>
>>
>>
>>
>> Sincerely,
>>
>>
>> Debbie Nelson
>>
>>
>> (250) 512-7494 (temporary to January 11th)
>>
>>
>> (250) 818-3973 (after January 11th)
>>

```
>>
>>
>> Hello,
>>
>> I am trying to identify the location and description of slag and >> residue >> piles from lead and zinc smelters in North America. It appears
>>
> many
>
>> of >> the >> legacy slag and residue piles from former or present smelters are >> designated >> Superfund sites. I am wondering if the EPA has published a > national
>>
>
>> inventory >> of smelter slag and residue stockpiles or if you have any >> information on >> smelter
>> history (i.e. location of past and present smelters)? Also, as you >> were >> directly involved with the East Helena smelter site, do you know
>>
> who
>
>> I >> would >> contact to obtain information about the slag generated by the >> smelter?
>> I am >> interested in the volume and assay. Thank-you.
>>
>> I would be grateful for any assistance or suggestions you can >> offer.
```

Sincerely,
Debbie Nelson
(250) 368-3981